

An Overview of Domestic Cat Behaviour. The cat is a naturally independent animal that spends much of its day resting. Unlike a dog, a cat rarely needs to be walked and prefers to explore indoors or in a quiet garden. Cats often sit near windows, watch birds, and groom themselves for long periods. A happy cat will purr when content and may knead soft blankets. Feeding a cat on a consistent schedule helps maintain a healthy routine.